of THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT and/or THE CITY OF NEW YORK were performed while acting within the scope of their employment by the Defendant, THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT and THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

19. On October 31, 2016, at approximately 4:00 to 4:30 p.m., the Plaintiff, Selwyn Walker, was approached by PAROLE OFFICERS MANDERSON, DIXON and UZZELL, employees of the NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS AND COMMUNITY SUPERVISION and/or the NEW YORK STATE DIVISION OF PAROLE while he was exiting a shed which was located on his property and which was part of his residence located at 2228 Loretta Road, Far Rockaway, New York.
 20. On October 31, 2016, PAROLE OFFICERS MANDERSON, DIXON, FULLER and UZZELL advised the Plaintiff that he was in violation of his parole because he was in his backyard, a property gated and enclosed by a six-foot-tall fence.
 21. On October 31, 2016, PAROLE OFFICERS MANDERSON, DIXON, FULLER and UZZELL falsely and fraudulently informed the Claimant that he was in violation of his parole because he was in his backyard.
 22. On October 31, 2016, PAROLE OFFICERS MANDERSON, DIXON, FULLER and UZZELL also inquired from the Claimant's sister, who owns the aforementioned property, whether or not a Channel 7 News crew could come onto the property, to which she responded "NO." Plaintiff's sister further requested news reporters from "Channel 7 News" to leave her property while they stood on the front lawn and driveway. As such, the aforementioned Parole Officers acted in concert to deprive the Plaintiff of his rights, and to embarrass him, humiliate him, and subject him to scorn in his community.

23. The Plaintiff thereafter remained on the property until approximately 6:00 p.m., when Parole Officers, including P.O. MANDERSON, DIXON, FULLER AND UZZELL returned with reporters and personnel employed by "Channel 7 News" and arrested him in the presence of said news reporters who were in possession of a hidden camera. At such point, Channel 7 News entered into the house without permission and filmed the Parole Officers while making the arrest of the Plaintiff after they had intentionally staged items to appear in a specified manner inside the apartment. Moreover, a press release from Channel 7 News indicated that "Plaintiff had children's toys in his bedroom, including a little girl's stuffed animal and that this was the guy that went back to Rikers."
24. The Plaintiff, despite a prior conviction, had never been convicted of any crime related to pedophilia, and was a victim of a staged event planned and perpetrated by the Defendants, PAROLE OFFICERS MANDERSON, DIXON, FULLER and UZZEL and/or the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT to bolster the aggressive and proactive work of the NYPD and the Department of Parole in their involvement in the program, "Operation Halloween." Upon information and belief, this program was created and orchestrated by the City of New York.
25. Plaintiff was wrongfully accused of a parole violation, falsely arrested and violently handcuffed, and was caused to endure great pain for an extended amount of pain.
26. Plaintiff was falsely imprisoned and detained for two weeks at Rikers Island.
27. On November 1, 2016, Channel 7 News aired a video entitled: "Operation Halloween Aims to Protect Children From Sex Offenders" indicating that a news crew was driving with a squad that included officers employed by the aforementioned Parole Officers, MANDERSON, DIXON, FULLER AND UZZELL employed by the NEW YORK

STATE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS AND COMMUNITY SUPERVISION and/or the NEW YORK STATE DIVISION OF PAROLE, who were conducting sweeps to make certain that registered sex offenders were not violating parole during the Halloween weekend and endangering children. Upon information and belief, this program was planned and orchestrated by the NYPD and The City of New York. The targeting of potential pedophiles was specifically discussed during the aforementioned news segment, in addition to the fact that one of the people whose home was visited had actually murdered a child.

28. With respect to the Plaintiff, SELWYN WALKER, the news segment mentioned that the Plaintiff had violated parole, and was being arrested and taken to Rikers – again falsely implying that the Plaintiff had committed acts of pedophilia, which was completely untrue.
 29. On the 14th Day of November, 2016 at a preliminary hearing, the hearing examiner concluded that the Parole Officers had no probable cause to arrest and detain the Plaintiff because he was in his approved residence at the time of the incident and thus, did not violate his parole or curfew. The hearing examiner further ordered that the Department of Corrections immediately lift the warrant causing the arrest of the Claimant, and release him.
 30. Although the warrant was lifted within two to three hours, upon information and belief, employees of the NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS refused to release the Claimant until more than 24 hours later.
 31. That prior to, and after the lifting of the warrant, as aforesaid, the NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS and their officers, agents and employees wrongfully incarcerated the Plaintiff.

32. Upon information and belief, although the warrant was lifted within two to three hours, employees of the New York State Department of Corrections refused to release the Plaintiff until more than 24 hours later.
 33. On October 31, 2016, employees or officers of the CITY OF NEW YORK and/or THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT unlawfully entered and searched the Plaintiff's apartment without the permission or consent of the Plaintiff or his family members without a search warrant.
 34. On October 31, 2016, PROBATION OFFICERS, MENDELSON, DIXON, FULLER AND UZZELL unlawfully entered and searched the Plaintiff's residence after falsely accusing him of violating his parole.
 35. On October 31, 2016, the Plaintiff did not give voluntary consent to employees or officers of the CITY OF NEW YORK and/or THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT to enter and search his premises.
 36. On October 31, 2016, NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT officers conducted a warrantless entry and search of the premises which was impermissible under the law.
 37. That no criminal act, violation of probation or negligence on the part of the Plaintiff SELWYN WALKER contributed to the occurrence alleged hereinafter in any manner whatsoever.
 38. That because of the unlawful arrest, illegal search and harassment of the Plaintiff, SELWYN WALKER, the Plaintiff was caused to sustain permanent personal injuries, including but not limited to negligent infliction of emotional distress, bodily injuries, intentional infliction of emotional distress, false arrest, false imprisonment, violation of the plaintiff's civil rights under the U.S Constitution, violation of the Plaintiff's rights under 42 U.S.C. §1983, pain, shock, mental anguish; that these injuries and their effects will be permanent.
